(Fukuda Doctrine)

- First, Japan, a nation committed to peace, rejects the role of a military power, and on that basis is resolved to contribute to the peace and prosperity of Southeast Asia, and of the world community.
- Second, Japan, as a true friend of the countries of Southeast Asia, will do its best for consolidating the relationship of mutual confidence and trust based on "heart-to-heart" understanding with these countries, in wide-ranging fields covering not only political and economic areas but also social and cultural areas.
- Third, Japan will be an equal partner of ASEAN and its member countries, and cooperate positively with them in their own efforts to strengthen their solidarity and resilience, together with other nations of the like mind outside the region, while aiming at fostering a relationship based on mutual understanding with the nations of Indochina, and will thus contribute to the building of peace and prosperity throughout Southeast Asia.

Three Pillars of a New ASEAN-Japan Partnership for Cooperation

I. Shaping a regional order which is free, open, rules-based and fair

Cooperate in establishing a fair regional order based on rules based on AOIP and FOIP.
Maintain, enhance the role of ASEAN architecture and ASEAN centrality and unity.
(e.g. jointly promote efforts to ease tensions in the region over the long term; strengthen the ASEAN architecture; support the strengthening of the ASEAN Secretariat's organization and functions; promote security cooperation)

II. Building a society which fulfills economic development, sustainability and fairness

Create an Indo Pacific region as an ecosystem for building a society of inclusiveness and diversity which generates aspiration for development, sustainability and fairness and interconnecting cooperation in multiple areas.
(e.g. maintain and strengthen a free, open and fair economic order; development through economic revitalization and advancement; cooperate for social development and equity; building a sustainable and resilient society.)

III. Foster mutual understanding and trust as the foundation for a new ASEAN-Japan partnership

Renew our network and connect our new generations. Bring our civil societies closer together as our engine to transform ASEAN-Japan relations by create a web of networks that invites new and critical actors from our changing society, due to economic development, social maturation and diversification.
(e.g. Exchange programs on various profession for the new generation among ASEAN and Japan; which includes cross sectoral high-skill transnational professional networks)

Initiatives to realize the above

Utilize the existing cooperation schemes for ASEAN or consider their successors or new mechanisms; advance cooperation schemes and projects by utilizing the public and private resources besides ODA.

ASEAN-Japan Economic Co-Creation Vision

~A New Vision Looking Ahead to the Next 50 Years~

Develop a society that is “safe, prosperous and free” through fair and mutually beneficial economic co-creation based on the trust that has been built over the past 50 years

Three Fundamental Concepts to Support the Vision

Sharing practices for development and overcoming challenges

Be grounded in diverse realities and geopolitical conditions

Circulating human resources to bring innovation together

~Four Pillars of Action to Realize the Vision

Realizing Sustainability to Balance Diversity and Inclusiveness

Promoting Open Innovation beyond Borders

Strengthening Cyber-Physical Connectivity

Building an Ecosystem in Co-Creating Dynamic Human Capital

Further Utilize ERIA

Strengthen ASEAN and Japan cooperation in both the public and private sectors and promote co-creation projects

- ✓ Interactively link the Growth and Innovation models that reflect the strengths of each country
- ✓ Demonstrate the co-creation relationship of ASEAN and Japan as one of the models to be pursued globally
- ✓ Contribute to the establishment of a free, fair and open regional economic order

Overview of Future Design and Action Plan
